

Knobbies News - April Issue

Hi All

Iron Knob Hotel has new owner, Angela and Alan Irvine have taken over the day to day operation of running the pub. Both have had experience before in running the Port Germain Hotel. Once Angela and Alan are settled in they plan on opening from 11.00am daily, there is also accommodation available, meals and lunch daily, so if your around Iron Knob drop in and see Angela and Alan and say hello. For bookings phone 0886462088

OneSteel Whyalla Tours are proving very popular with large numbers already attending. The tour bus has run 3 times in one day with full buses, so big thanks to all you people who have taken the tour, we hope to have email up and running on this site soon so when it is feel free to contact us.

Long time resident Ned Donnelly turns 90 this week party planned for him this weekend 17th April so HAPPY BIRTHDAY NED from all your friends in Iron Knob.

We have installed a donation button on our information page, so if you would like to donate its easy. Just click on the button and follow the prompts. We appreciate your help as Iron Knob is run by Volunteers with the help of Outback Area's Community Trust.

Later this month we have been given permission to enter the mine site under the supervision of OneSteel to take photo's, so watch for a page with mine photo's in the near future, has been a while since photo's of the monarch have been taken so will be interesting.

We must give a big thanks to Jacqueline Hancock who put this web site together for us, she has done a fantastic job Jacqueline has also helped out other community's with their web sites so thanks Jac for your great work.

That's it for now, hope this finds you all in good health hope to catch you in Iron Knob soon, if you call in look me up and say hi.
